

ARTCRAWL Houston 2007 at ATELIER JACQUINET™

Atelier Jacquinet, Art Studio and Gallery

(In what used to be "Tony's Tortilla Factory")

15th Annual Houston Art Crawl

November 17th 2007

1:00 to 9:00 pm

It is the Saturday before Thanksgiving.
Bring visiting friends and family.

Free Admission and Free Parking right across McKee Street Park "at your own risk" in the Wilson Building parking lot, at the corner of Nance and McKee Street.

Atelier Jacquinet will open its doors to the general public as part of the Downtown Houston 15th Annual ArtCrawl.

Over 20 different artists will show their talents in a multitude of media such as: painting, caricatures, pottery, drawings, performance art, poetry reading, singing, music and more both indoor and outdoor.

The Culinary Arts will be represented through hors d'oeuvres and chocolate truffles that will be served compliments of the Art Institute of Houston. Beverages will also be available, free of charge.

Make sure you stop at the Atelier Jacquinet, because...
"You haven't been at the ArtCrawl until you have visited the Atelier."

Some artists will accept personal checks and/or major credit and debit cards for their artwork.
